SANDWICH & SNACK SHOW, PARIZZA, JAPAN FOODSHOW 2020 POSTPONED

NEXT DATES: from March 31st to April 1st, 2021

Paris, Porte de Versailles Expo Center - Pavillon 7.2

Due to the circumstances related to the COVID-19 epidemic, in the current local and international health and safety context, which is getting worse, Reed Expositions France announces that the 2020 edition of Sandwich & Snack Show, Parizza and Japan Food Show, scheduled from September 20 to 22, is postponed to March 31st – 1st April, 2021

All the Reed Expositions France teams have worked over the last few months to maintain the event in compliance with the health regulations in force.

However, in an increasingly uncertain national and international context, and after consultation with a large number of exhibitors and partners, it seems better to postpone the 2020 edition of the Sandwich & Snack Show, Parizza and Japan Food ; this leading event dedicated to the discovery and tasting of new products for the catering sector cannot keep its promise this year.

Jean-François Quentin, Business Unit General Director of Reed Expositions France specifies, "It's a difficult decision and we have studied all the possibilities to maintain the event. After considering various options, we have decided to postpone Sandwich & Snack Show, Parizza, Japan Food Show".

"It is with great emotion and sadness that we have made this decision. We would like to thank our customers - exhibitors and visitors - and partners for their patience and understanding, and we will work twice as hard to support them and prepare for the next edition" adds Béatrice Gravier, Director of the Sandwich & Snack Show, Parizza and Japan Food Show.

The show team will return to all its customers and partners as soon as possible to prepare the 2021 edition with them.
